

每個孩子都有權利做自己，
也有受尊重的權利。

1989年11月20日，聯合國頒布《兒童權利公約》(The Convention on the Rights of the Child，縮寫為CRC)。2014年，臺灣將公約納入國內法，開始實施《兒童權利公約施行法》。

這部因應兒童特殊需求而有的公約，對臺灣社會大眾而言仍然相當陌生。在公約頒布30週年之際，國家人權博物館為了使人權教育向下扎根，讓更多人了解到兒童不僅僅是需要被保護的對象，也是行使權利的主體，特別以「兒童」、「人權」為關鍵字，舉辦「我是兒童，我有權利」特展。

The Convention on the Rights of the Child (abbreviated as the CRC) was promulgated on November 20, 1989. The Convention was incorporated into the domestic law of Taiwan through the Implementation Act of the Convention on the Rights of the Child.

After thirty years of its promulgation, the public in Taiwan remains unfamiliar with the Convention, which safeguards the best interests of the child. Therefore, the National Human Rights Museum hosts a special exhibition "I Am a Child! I Have Rights!" to promote human rights education and to raise the awareness that children are not only objects to be protected but also subjects to exercise their rights.
